

Please carefully re-consider removing Airl from the San Diego community. It truly allows those in need to hear uplifting music. The youth of San Diego especially need to have this valuable resource available as they are bombarded by so much negativity via other communication sources.

Thank you for your consideration,
Jennifer Dill